Has lived a bachelor. Her handkerchiefs are white as milk: Her skirts as white as snow; Her slippered feet are small and neat, And always "on the go." She floats about as if upborne On gum-clastic springs, Or some unseen, mysterious power, With undiscovered wings.

Her glossy hair is deepest brown; Her eyes are softly dark, And from their loving depths shoots for Full many a cheerful spark; Her smile sends speeding on their flight The swift-winged, rosy hours, And what was once my darksome way Is radiant now with flowers.

My linen has a glossy white, More pure than ever shone On Parian marble, and, what's more, There's ne'er a button gone. She knits me stockings, makes me shirts, And darns up all my rents, And saves me half of what was once My bachelor expense.

Now, all you crusty bachelors, With life's great buttle sore, Go, get a wife and settle down, And play the fool no more! Don't be too nice-they're angels all-With loving hearts and true; The secret is, be kind to them, And they'll be kind to you.

DR. BOBACK'S SCANDINAVIAN REMEDIES.

WHEN DR. ROBACK, the celebrated Swedish Blood Plusian, introduced his Blood Purifier and Blood Plusian the United States, he set forth in plain language their curtive properties. This was years ago. The task of recommending them has since been taken out of his hands. Enlightened men whose character for sound judgment and philosophy gives their opinions weight in the community, men who observe, reflect, and make "assurance doubly sure" before they decide—are everywhere approving and orging the ase of these wonderful Preparations. All who confide in the wisdom and hon esty of this class, or who choose to invest, ate for the selves are now of one mind on this important subject.

Dr. Roback invites the attention of the sick to the Original Letters, from members of the Medical Profession, Editors of public journals, well known Merchants and Parmers, and Ladies of the highest respectability, ziving accounts of extraordinary cures wrought by the refre dies, of which cures they themselves were Eye Witnesses. These parties may be consulted personally or by letter, by those who have any doubt upon the subject. The evidence in the possession of Dr. Roback, which is at all times accessible to the public estab which is at all tring tishes the following PACTS:
